CIVIL WAR DAYS

Learn the history of Carthage through the artwork of a local artist. Lowell Davis' mural "Forged in Fire" depicts 150 years of Jasper County's history. See an authentic 1830's cabin that was used as the meeting place to form Jasper County's government in 1841. Retrace the history of the skirmishes and battles in the area leading up to the Civil War by locating the many markers and monuments throughout the city. Visit a home built by slaves and occupied by the Confederate State Guard & Union troops during the "Battle of Carthage." Learn the legend of the Petticoat Flag. See where the soldiers set up camp on the edge of town. Check out the surrounding area for other Civil War sites. Must Sees: Jasper County Courthouse, Old Cabin Shop, Kendrick Place, Battle of Carthage State Historic Site, and Civil War Museum. For information call 866-357-8687 or visit www.visit-carthage.com

SHOW ME THE ART

See Bob Tommey and Bill Snow's bronze statue of the Carthage native Marlin Perkins of "Wild Kingdom" television fame. Visit one of the last remaining Carnegie libraries and don't miss the Memorial Library Gardens complete with Alice in Wonderland statue. Find a mural that depicts an 1879 scene at the Burlingame & Chaffee Opera House and a turn of the century scene featuring the popular Light Guard Band. Visit a gallery that holds rotating exhibits each year featuring area artists. Watch pottery being made by the resident potter. View the many works of Andy Thomas at the Civil War Museum, and check out Lowell Davis' "Forged in Fire" mural in the Jasper County Courthouse. This is just a sampling of the art that you will find in Carthage, Missouri. End the evening by checking into one of Carthage's fine hotels or Bed & Breakfast Inns. Must Sees: Central Park, Carnegie Library, Historic Downtown Square, artCentral, Emporium on the Square, Jasper County Courthouse, and Civil War Museum. For information call 866-357-8687 or visit www.visit-carthage.com

WARS, BATTLES AND MEMORIALS

The square was the scene of important action before, during and after the Battle of Carthage. The Civil War-era courthouse burned in 1862 when Jo Shelby's Confederate raiders skirmished through the area. View military artifacts and several markers and monuments honoring the soldiers of the Osage War and the Battle of Carthage outside the 1895 Jasper County Courthouse on the downtown square. Several monuments, statues and memorials are located throughout the community; don't miss Carthage's tribute to World War I soldiers or the miniature Vietnam Veterans Wall of Honor in Central Park. Explore the many other battle sites around the region. Must Sees: Civil War Museum, Kendrick House, Jasper County Courthouse, Wall of Honor, Battle of Carthage markers, World War I Memorial. For information call 866-357-8687 or visit www.visit-carthage.com

ANTIQUE TREASURES AND A SHOPPING ADVENTURE

Start the morning off with a cappuccino and rolls from a downtown 1950's theme diner. Begin browsing the many stores and antique malls around the historic square. You'll find nautical collections, elegant glassware, mid 1900 to 1930 period antique furniture, authentic country store antiques, fixtures and so much more. Check out Annie's just around the corner for specialty food and drink items. If you haven't found what you're looking for don't fret, travel along Route 66 for more treasures and antiques or seek out the many specialty stores sprinkled throughout the community. End your day by checking into one of Carthage's fine hotels or historic Bed & Breakfast Inns. Must Sees: Carthage Deli, Maple Leaf Marketplace, Goad's Antiques, Emporium on the Square, Oldies and Oddities, Route 66 Antique Mall, Dean's Antique Mall, Annie's, All Things Grand, Lily Pad Gift Shop, and Grand Interiors.
