Tour

If you want to do some leaf peeping this fall, Central PA is your place... find the artist in you during the Fall Colors Artist Studio Tour, visit our wineries, stroll through historic shopping districts, enjoy fine dining in a once working grist mill and experience Broadway... a little off Broadway. State College has what you are looking for in a university town, only better. Bellefonte is an architect's dream with stately Victorian mansions and Georgian-style architecture dating back to the 1700's. The town also boasts a historic train station. A short drive to Boalsburg will reveal a community graced with small town charm but with a big place in the history of America... the birthplace of Memorial Day is also home to the Pennsylvania Military Museum and descendents of Christopher Columbus. Take a scenic drive through Penn's Valley and Brush Valley with their rolling hills and Amish Farms.

Roar

Roar with nearly 110,000 of your closest friends as the Penn State Nittany Lions take the field! On game day at Beaver Stadium, University Park and State College are said to become the third largest city in Pennsylvania! Dip into the Penn State Creamery... if Bittersweet Mint isn't your favorite, how about Peachy Paterno? Walk among the trees on campus, spread a blanket on the HUB lawn, and listen to tunes... or rock out at the Bryce Jordan Center with headline bands and some of the biggest names in entertainment. Step up to the plate with the State College Spikes, a Class 'A' affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates and they share one of the only LEED certified green stadiums in baseball with the Penn State team.

Central PA has some of the best mountain biking areas in the country... miles and miles of single track through Rothrock

State Forest. Penn's Cave is the only all water commercial cavern in the United States... you can explore the entire cave by boat! Fly fishing is an international sport on Central PA streams... many are visited by U.S. Presidents and have hosted world championships.

Climb Mount Nittany for spectacular views...for an adrenaline rush, challenge yourself on one of the largest vertical adventure courses on the East Coast, then join some of the biggest names in action sports at Camp Woodward. Check out one of our outfitters for the latest on climbing, paddling, trail running, cycling and more!

Stay at the new Nature Inn at Bald Eagle, luxury set on the water in Bald Eagle State Park!

When it gets a little colder... visit Bellefonte's Victorian Christmas Celebration, experience first night State College and start the new year with a Resolution Run, hoop it up for a Penn State Winter Sports Weekend getaway or warm up fireside at one of our cozy downtown taverns.
