CANYON CRUISE ADVENTURES: Cruise Antelope Canyon with steep red sandstone walls, or Navajo Canyon with dark desert varnish appearing like a tapestry on the towering rock walls and grand views of Tower Butte and Navajo Arch. Visit Lost Eden Canyon, streaked with a dark patina. Or Moki Canyon, a long and winding gorge with immense water caves. Or beautiful Forgotten Canyon, with its lichen-covered walls.

CANYON KING SUNSET DINNER CRUISE: Enjoy a Prime Rib or vegetarian lasagna dinner on the Canyon King paddle wheeler during the lake's colorful transformation from deep reds and burnt oranges to lavender, ginger and silver.

WAHWEAP BAY PADDLE WHEELER CRUISE: Take a one-hour cruise around Wahweap Bay, viewing some of Lake Powell's unique rock formations, on the Canyon King, an 1800s-style paddle wheeler.

RAINBOW BRIDGE CRUISE ADVENTURES: Sculpted by wind and water, spanning 275 feet at a height of 290 feet, Rainbow Bridge is quite likely the most photographed geological wonder in the American West. Archeologists believe Native Americans camped here nearly 2,000 years ago. Newspaper articles, a feature in National Geographic, along with visits by President Theodore Roosevelt and western writer Zane Grey helped bring prominence and national monument status to the bridge in 1909.

COLORADO RIVER RAFT TRIPS: For a memorable scenic float adventure during your Lake Powell visit, contact the river raft experts at Wilderness River Adventures for a half-day Colorado River Float Trip. Float along a portion of the only untamed section of the Colorado River, just south of Lake Powell and the mighty Glen Canyon Dam. Relax as your guide leads you on an enlightening journey of spectacular scenery, history and folklore.

RESORT LODGING: Lake Powell Resort (formerly Wahweap Lodge) on the south end of the lake at Wahweap Marina and Defiance House Lodge at Bullfrog Marina offer the only resort-style lodging on the shores of Lake Powell, both with sweeping lake views. Lake Powell Resort also features a seasonal swim beach where you can relax in the sun or the shade of a beach cabana. For activities ranging from Water Ski or Wakeboard lessons to Snorkeling and Scuba Diving to Kayaking, Horseshoes and much more, visit Lake Powell Resort's Adventure Cove Swim Beach.

Lake Powell's sports clothing line offers popular items for children and adults, including t-shirts, caps, sundresses and sweatshirts. Sundry items are also available.
